

“Rule of Law” Writing Competition

Sponsored by the Supreme Court Historical Society

Open Oct 6 – Oct 27, 2025

Ages 13–19

FREE to Enter
Cash Prizes

- Explore justice, equity, fairness, rules, and/or laws across three genres: personal narrative, opinion writing, and creative writing
- Receive mentorship from a professional educator, lawyer, or legal scholar (first 50 entries)
- Opportunity for your work to be professionally published!

Get Resources & Enter at writetheworld.org

★ About the Supreme Court Historical Society

The Supreme Court Historical Society is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit membership organization dedicated to preserving and collecting the history of the United States Supreme Court, increasing public awareness of the Court's contribution to the constitutional heritage of the United States, and acquiring knowledge covering the history of the entire Judicial Branch. Learn more at supremecourthistory.org and explore resources at civics.supremecourthistory.org

🌐 About Write the World

Write the World, Inc. is a 501(C)(3) nonprofit organization dedicated to equipping teenagers with the confidence and competence to change the world, one word at a time. Reaching over 120,000 students and teachers from over 125 countries, Write the World helps develop teenagers' writing and critical thinking skills, and empowers young writers to become global citizens and succeed in school, career, and life. Learn more at: writetheworld.org